

Puma at large

☐ What sort of reports were received by London Zoo ?

London Zoo received reports about sightings of a wild animal outside the zoo, specifically a puma in the area.

☐ Were the reports similar in nature or not?

Yes, the reports were similar, with multiple witnesses reporting sightings of the same wild animal.

☐ Who saw it first?

The puma was first spotted by a woman was picking blackberries .

☐ Did it stay in one place, or did it move from place to place?

No, the puma didn't stay in one place; it moved from location to location.

☐ What did it leave behind?

It left behind a trail of dead deer and small animals and paw prints .

☐ Were paw -prints and puma fur found as well or not

Yes, paw -prints and puma fur were also found.

☐ What was heard at night?

Strange noises and sounds were heard at night, believed to be linked to the animal.

☐ Was the animal seen up in a tree or not?

Yes, the animal was seen up in a tree where a business man was fishing.

☐ were experts now sure that the animal really was a puma or not?

No, experts are not completely certain yet, but they believe it was a puma.