

"Thirteen Equals One"

1. What woke the vicar?

The vicar was woken up by the sound of the clock striking.

2. What time was it?

It was one o'clock in the morning.

3. How many times did the clock strike?

The clock struck thirteen times, which was unusual.

4. Where did the vicar go?

The vicar went to the clock tower.

5. What did he take with him?

The vicar took a lamp so he could see.

6. Who did he see in the clock tower?

The vicar saw Bill Wilkins, the grocer.

7. What did Bill Wilkins say he was trying to do?

Bill Wilkins said he was trying to fix the clock.

8. Did Bill Wilkins succeed in fixing the clock?

No, Bill Wilkins did not succeed, as he made the clock strike thirteen times instead of one .

9. Was the vicar pleased or angry?

The vicar was pleased because of the clock started ringing again .

10. What did he offer to the grocer?

The vicar offered to drink a tea .