

Writing First year

Lecture 1

Prepared by: Prof. Dr. Haider Bairmani

Title: What is a Sentence?

Understanding the Basic Unit of Writing

Definition of a sentence: "A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought."

Breakdown of the components of a sentence: subject, predicate, and sometimes an object.

Examples of Sentences

Example sentences illustrating different types and structures.

Simple sentence: "The cat sits on the mat."

Compound sentence: "The cat sits on the mat, but the dog sleeps on the couch."

Complex sentence: "While the cat sits on the mat, the dog barks loudly."

Characteristics of a Good Sentence

Clarity: Clear and concise expression of ideas.

Completeness: Contains all necessary information to convey meaning.

Correctness: Free from grammatical errors and ambiguity.

Importance of Sentences in Writing

Sentences serve as the foundation of all writing.

They convey meaning, structure ideas, and connect paragraphs and sections.

Conclusion

The basic component of writing any paragraph or an essay.

Importance of mastering sentence construction in effective writing.

"Writing in Paragraph" by Dorothy and Islam as a reference.