Word processing

Word processing is the use of a program (software application) running on a computer that allows users to create, edit, format, and store documents.

2. Click the File tab.
3. Click the New tab.

Editing in word processing may include the following tasks:

- Adding text (terms, phrases, paragraphs, etc.)
- Deleting a part of a text
- Copying text
- Moving text
- Pasting text
- Checking for grammar and spelling
- Formatting text

1. Click File Explorer icon.
2. Go to the location where stores your file or folder (hard drive, USB, etc.).
3. Open the document you wish to edit.
4. Move the I-beam pointer  to where you wish to select text.

 2. To select an entire line of text: move the I-beam to the left of the line until it turns into a right-pointing arrow , then click.
 3. To select a paragraph: triple-click the paragraph.
 4. To select any amount of text: click and drag the I-beam over the text to highlight it.

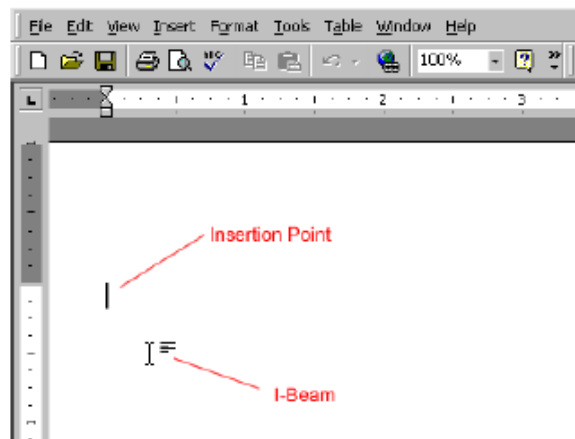

5. To select an entire document: move the I-beam to the left of any text until it turns into a right-pointing arrow , then triple-click. Or click the Home tab, under Editing, click Select, and then click Select All.

Delete (or remove) text

Method 1

Copy and Paste

Copy vs. cut

- Copy – duplicates the selected item (text, symbol, table, image, etc.).
- Cut – removes the selected item from its original position.

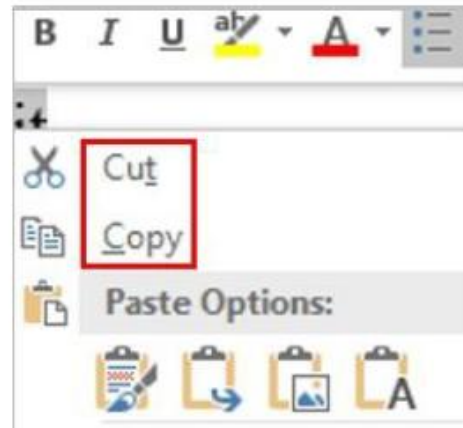

Copy and paste vs. cut and paste

- Copy and paste – duplicates the selected item. The selected item can be found in both original and the new, pasted location(s).
- Cut and paste – duplicates the selected item then deletes the original. The selected data can be found only at the new, pasted location (the item has moved from one location to another).
