

Al Mustaqbal Uni.

Dep. of English 3rd year

Translation handouts

Translate the following into Arabic

-Iraq plans to inaugurate the largest cancer drug factory in the region in Abu Ghraib, 32 kilometers (20 miles) west of Baghdad, in December at a cost of 50 million euros. Iraqi News.

The step is part of the Iraqi government's continued efforts to develop the health sector, particularly the localization of pharmaceutical industries.

- Dana Gas, one of the operators of the Khor Mor gas field in Iraqi Kurdistan, said on Thursday that a rocket assault struck a storage tank at the gas field, halting production and leading to power outages. Baghdad, IraqiNews