

Al Mustaqbal Uni.

Dep. of English

4th year. Translation handouts

Translate the following into Arabic.

-Iraq Sees 250 Million Cubic Meters of Rainwater

Iraq's Ministry of Water Resources confirmed that the recent rainwave that swept across the country over the past two days added 250 million cubic meters of water to the national system, significantly strengthening dam storage and improving natural grazing areas. Iraqi News.

-Iraq ramps up tactical training ahead of UAE showdown in Basra

The Iraqi national football team intensified its tactical preparations in Basra on Monday, according to information obtained by Iraqi News. As the squad completes its final phase of training ahead of Tuesday's decisive clash against the UAE in the Asian qualifiers for the 2026 World Cup playoff.

- Ancient Site to Linked to Battle of Al- Qasisiyah discovered in Najaf

A joint Iraqi-British research team announced on Sunday the discovery of a rare archaeological site in Najaf dating back to the year 15 AH, revealing that the region contains historically significant locations, most of which remain unexplored. Iraqi News.